

Esque, Eliza

Year Featured: 2011

Researcher: Denise Fries-Romack

Table of Contents

Biography

1. Cemetery Walk Biography by Emily Swartz
2. Researcher notes by Denise Fries-Romack

Newspaper Articles

1. "The African Reception," The Pantagraph, October 20, 1865
2. "Funeral of Eliza Esque," The Pantagraph, August 19, 1914

Census Information

1. 1880 U.S. Census entry for Eliza Esque (spelled Eskue)

Information on husband, Hardin Esque

1. Researcher notes by Denise Fries-Romack
2. Brief summary on Hardin's first wife, also named Eliza Esque
3. Ancestry.com Civil War Pension Index for Hardin Esque (listed as Harding Escue; Esaw Harding)
4. U.S. National Archives & Records Administration Federal Military Pension Application for Hardin Esque (Harding Escue, Esaw Harding)
5. 1850 U.S. Census entry for Hardin Esque (spelled Eskew)
6. 1860 U.S. Census entry for Hardin Esque (spelled Esckew or Eschew)
7. "Funeral Services of Hardin Esque," The Pantagraph, November 1, 1875
8. "The Funeral of Hardin Eskew," The Pantagraph, November 2, 1875

Esque Families in McLean County

1. Researcher notes on Esque Families in McLean County by Denise Fries-Romack
2. Bloomington-Normal City Directory Information about Esque families in McLean County

Emancipation Day/First of August Celebrations

1. Research summary by Denise Fries-Romack
2. Notes to Mildred Pratt from Scott Wagers, June 30, 1995
3. "Anti-slavery Lecture," The Pantagraph, August 17, 1858
4. "African M.E. Church Pic Nic," The Pantagraph, July 30, 1859
5. "First of August," The Pantagraph, August 1, 1859
6. "African Festival," The Pantagraph, December 28, 1859
7. "A Mass Meeting," The Pantagraph, August 1, 1860

8. "Big Time," The Pantagraph, August 4, 1861
9. "The First of August," The Pantagraph, August 2, 1862
10. "Colored Persons Festival," The Pantagraph, August 14, 1863
11. "Celebration," The Pantagraph, August 2, 1864
12. "Sociable," The Pantagraph, June 25, 1869
13. "Emancipation Day," The Pantagraph, December 3, 1873
14. "How the Colored People Celebrated Emancipation Day," The Pantagraph, January 3, 1874
15. "Grand Celebration and Picnic," The Pantagraph, August 11, 1874
16. "Bloomington Negroes celebrate West Indian Emancipation," Chicago Evening Journal, August 1874
17. "Free and Happy," The Pantagraph, August 12, 1874
18. "Select Your Partner," The Pantagraph, January 9, 1880
19. "The Colored Celebration," The Pantagraph, September 16, 1880
20. "Church Notes," The Pantagraph, August 1, 1881
21. "The Colored Orator at Peoria," The Pantagraph, August 4, 1881
22. "An Emancipation Celebration," The Pantagraph, August 2, 1882
23. "Colored Picnic," The Pantagraph, August 11, 1882
24. "Senator Gus Hill," The Pantagraph, August 2, 1883
25. "Colored Folks Picnic," The Pantagraph, August 8, 1885
26. "Will Celebrate Emancipation Day," The Pantagraph, July 30, 1900
27. "To Celebrate Emancipation Day," The Pantagraph, September 19, 1900
28. "Colored People of City to Celebrate Emancipation Day," The Pantagraph, September 20, 1920
29. "Extoll Memory of Abe Lincoln," The Pantagraph, September 23, 1920

Additional Resources in McLean County Museum of History Library/Archives

1. John Muirhead. African-American War Letters and News Accounts: McLean County, Bloomington-Normal Black History Project Collection
2. Scott Wagers. McLean County Blacks in The Civil War, Thesis. August 2, 1993